Part I. Retainers

Identify any person or other organization from which you or a business in which you have a substantial interest have received a fee as a retainer for future services in case of need (as opposed to a fee for services on a matter specified at the time of contracting for the fee). Report only retainer fees in which the amount of work performed does not equal or exceed the value of the retainer during the reporting period. Also include retainer fees for which no services have been performed. Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. No. H-269 (1974). Specify if the fee was received by you or by a business in which you have a substantial interest. Indicate the appropriate category of value for each retainer fee. [Texas Government Code § 572.023(b)(1)]

2 An individual has a “substantial interest” in a business entity if the individual:

1. has controlling interest in the business entity;
2. owns more than 10 percent of the voting interest in the business entity;
3. owns more than $25,000 of the fair market value of the business entity;
4. has a direct or indirect participating interest by shares, stocks, or otherwise, regardless of whether voting rights are included, in more than 10 percent of the profits, proceeds, or capital gains of the business entity;
5. is a member of the board of directors or other governing board of the business entity;
6. serves as an elected officer of the business entity; or
7. is an employee of the business entity. [Texas Government Code § 572.005]
Part II. Stock

Identify by name and indicate the appropriate category of the number of shares of stock of any business entity held or acquired. Report the category of number of shares as follows: Category A—less than 100, Category B—100 to 499, Category C—500 to 999, Category D—1,000 to 4,999, Category E—5,000 to 9,999, Category F—10,000 or more. If the stock is sold, check whether there was a net gain or net loss realized from the sale and indicate the category of the amount of gain or loss realized. [Texas Government Code § 572.023(b)(2)]

* A beneficial interest may be either legal or equitable title (such as when a creditor takes the legal title as security for repayment of a debt). A trust item should be reported under Part VIII.
Part VII. Gifts

Identify any person or other organization which has given a gift of anything of value in excess of $250 in value to you, your spouse, or your dependent children. Describe each gift. Do not include gifts received from persons related within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity\(^3\), political contributions that were reported as required by law, or expenditures required to be reported by a person required to be registered under Chapter 305, Government Code. [Texas Government Code § 572.023(b)(7)]

7 A benefit is anything reasonably regarded as pecuniary gain or pecuniary advantage, including benefit to any other person in whose welfare the beneficiary has a direct and substantial interest. Section 36.01(5), Penal Code.

Section 36.10 provides that the gift prohibitions set out in Sections 36.08 (Gift to Public Servant) and 36.09 (Offering Gift to Public Servant) of the Penal Code do not apply to a benefit to a public servant required to file a statement under Chapter 572, Texas Government Code or a report under Title 15, Election Code, that is derived from a function in honor or appreciation of the recipient if the benefit and the source of any benefit in excess of $50 is reported in the statement and the benefit is used solely to defray the expenses that accrue in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or political subdivision.

A benefit reported as a contribution by the officeholder on a sworn statement under Title 15 of the Election Code need not be reported again here.
Part XV. Benefits

List benefits derived from functions in honor or appreciation of the recipient by source, including name, address, and amount.
