To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to inform you that although we sent you the Personal Financial Statement for Jose Menendez, candidate of St. Representative 124, the affidavit part was accidentally left inside our copier. The rest of the financial statement was sent registered mail on March 6. I apologize for the inconvenience and the tardiness of a completed statement. I have enclosed the signed and notarized portion of the PFS.

Respectfully,

Kevin Lopez

PERSONAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT
AFFIDAVIT

The law requires the personal financial statement to be verified. The verification page must have the signature of the individual required to file the personal financial statement, as well as the signature and stamp or seal of office of a notary public or other person authorized by law to administer oaths and affirmations. Without proper verification, the statement is not considered filed.

I swear, or affirm, that my financial statement is true and correct and includes all information required to be reported by me under Chapter 572, Government Code.
